DIGITI ARCHAEOLOGY DAY

Join us on October 16th at the Michael C. Carlos Museum’s Ackerman Hall for a day of archaeology talks, hands-on activities and a showcase of archaeology at Emory!

DIGITI PROGRAM

- 10:00-10:10 Welcome by Museum Director Dr. Bonna Wescoat
- 10:10-10:30 Excavating the Sanctuary of the Great Gods, Samothrace by Ellen Archie and Claire Seidler
- 10:30-10:50 Archaeological Conservation at Emory: From Museum to Field by Brittany Dinneen
- 10:50-11:10 Beyond the Surface: Excavating in the Agora of Athens by Miltiadis Kylindreas
- 11:10–11:30 Coffee Break
- 11:30-11:50 Faces of the gods? Masks and masking in ancient Egypt by Dr. Rune Nyord
- 11:50-12:10 From rough stone to noble signet: material, craft, and function of ancient engraved gemstones by Dr. Ruth Allen
- 12:00-12:30 TBA by Dr. Eric Varner
- 12:30-2:00 Lunch/Hands-on activities (imprints using cylinder seals)/open galleries
- 2:30-4:00 Keynote lecture An Ancient Merchant’s Journey from India to Alexandria in Roman Times by Dr. Steven Sidebotham

INTERACTIVE ACTIVITIES

Lunch will be provided! Scan to RSVP

SPONSORED BY THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ARCHAEOLOGY, EMORY’S ANCIENT MEDITERRANEAN STUDIES AND MEDITERRANEAN ARCHAEOLOGY PROGRAMS AND THE MICHAEL C. CARLOS MUSEUM
ORGANIZED BY EMORY STUDENTS IN AMS AND MEDARCHII